

For Immediate Release:

October 12, 2021

For More Information:

Kimberly Lymore (kmlymore.bcts@gmail.com)

Black Catholic Theological Symposium (BCTS) announces new Executive Board

The Black Catholic Theological Symposium is pleased to announce the new BCTS Executive Board members that were elected at the 31st Annual Meeting at the University of Notre Dame held from Thursday, October 7, 2021 – Saturday, October 9, 2021.

The new BCTS Executive Board members are:

- Dr. Kimberly Lymore, Convener (St. Sabina Church/Catholic Theological Union)
- Dr. timone davis, Associate Convener (Loyola University/Institute of Pastoral Studies)
- Dr. Nathaniel Samuel, Secretary (Loyola University/Institute of Pastoral Studies)
- Dr. Kim Harris, Treasurer (Loyola Marymount University)
- Dr. Katrina Sanders, Archivist (University of Iowa)
- Rev. Dr. Maurice J. Nutt, C.Ss.R., Past Convener (Aquinas Institute of Theology)

The Black Catholic Theological Symposium is an interdisciplinary theological society of the Roman Catholic Tradition consisting of members from the U.S., Canada, the Caribbean, and Africa. The mission of the BCTS is to foster among Black Catholics an ethical community of scholarly dialogue characterized by 1) commitment to the fundamental humanity of all persons; 2) regard for the plurality of culture, ethnic backgrounds, and religious experience among Black peoples and 3) development of a theology which is authentically Black and truly Catholic.